G , - , - , C ,
First girl in my family to make it on to college
F , C , - , G ,
Got college debt (you'd win that bet) and most of a degree.
F , Em , C Caug F ,
To pay the rent while rustle ing success and higher knowledge
G , - , - , C ,
I took to waiting tables near the university.

G , - , - , C ,
The Maitre D winked at me, while seating at my table
F , C , - , G ,
A handsome man—tall and tan—who smiled and met my eye.
F , Em , C Caug F ,
My shift all done, this gentleman wooed me with a fable
G , - , - , C
About Amsterdam, Parea, Milan, Tokyo and Dubai.

, F , C , G , C ,
Where I got to, how I got there, there are folks would pay to know.
D , D7 , G , G7 ,
And part of me would take some glee in saying, "Told you so."
F , C , Em , F ,
I said I shouldn't but, you know, I knew of course I would
G , - , - , C , - ,
And now I'm set up pretty good.

G , - , - , C
Though ringless, he was married, soon it became clear.
, F , C , - , G ,
"How soon?" you ask. Lest ye be judged I will not answer here.
F , Em , C Caug F ,
He kept me in a handsome style, and I kept out of sight.
G , - , - , C ,
It's over now and, per our deal, my future's lookin' bright.

G , - , - , C ,
 Discretion was our bargain, and there were other terms.
 F , C , - , G
 He kept his and I kept mine, that's why you'll never learn
 , F , Em , C Caug F
 How sweet our time together, how genteel our goodbye,
 , G , - , - , C
 Nor how I found the funds to purchase things I now could buy.

, F , C , G , C ,
 Where I got to, how I got there, there are folks would pay to know.
 D , D7 , G , G7 ,
 And part of me would take some glee in saying, "Told you so."
 F , C , Em , F ,
 I said I shouldn't but, you know, I knew of course I would
 G , - , - , C , - ,
 And now I'm set up pretty good.

G , - , - , C ,
 'T'was in another lifetime. It happened far away.
 F , C , - , G
 I own a home and business now near where you live today.
 , F , Em , C Caug F
 I'm a clean-cut, all-American; this town eats from my hand,
 , G , - , - , C ,
 And I'm about to make a family with an honest family man.

F , C , G , C
 Where I came from, how I got here, there are folks would pay to know.
 , D , D7 , G , G7 ,
 And part of me would take some glee in shocking them, although
 F , C , Em , F ,
 I said I could keep secrets, and I showed my friend I could
 G , - , - , C ,
 And now I'm set up pretty good.
 G , - , - , C
 Pretty, set up well and pretty good.
